

Brand ambassador with strong affinity for marketing & finance bulthaup is more than an international manufacturer of premium kitchens. bulthaup is an emotional bond. As a growing company owned and managed by the third generation of our family and with 600 employees worldwide, the bulthaup brand represents authenticity, confidence, and the most exacting quality standards. With consistency and passion, we develop our products for the demands of the future. These products are made exclusively at our site in Aich, Lower Bavaria, and marketed in over 54 countries worldwide. As a long-established, family-owned company, we offer our employees and trainees a secure, friendly working environment with a wealth of opportunities for development. A wide range of different activities await you in a host of different professions, as well as the opportunity to grow both personally and professionally.

In this demanding role, with office based in Ghent, you are responsible for the implementation of the national strategic goals in the following domains: distribution policy, marketing and business administration. These goals should support, steer and develop our exclusive trading partners in the Belux region. You report to the Sales Director Europe.

Country Manager Belux (m/f)

You have experience in the premium world and you have a university degree in business administration with a strong affinity for marketing. Your heart beats for the changing retail landscape, brand awareness and the way of life bulthaup promotes. You can motivate, enthuse and convince people. You are characterized by professional appearance and enthusiasm for architecture and design.

A very good knowledge of Dutch, French and English, both in writing and orally is necessary. German is an asset. We look forward to receive your CV and application.
